

Parte 1

Paolo Manzone Barolo Riserva 2013

Score: 93 Points

Aromas of black truffles, ripe berries, walnuts and smoke follow through to a full body with round, chewy tannins and a juicy finish. Still need time to soften as the wood character is there, but it will come more together with time. Try after 2022.

Paolo Manzone Barolo Meriame 2016

Score: 93 Points

A very tight and well crafted Barolo with dark-berry, chocolate-powder and light hazelnut character, framed by fine, strong tannins. Very focused. Drink after 2022.

Paolo Manzone Barolo del Comune di Serralunga d'Alba 2016

Score: 93 Points

A red with pretty, ripe fruit and spices, showing attractive aromas and flavors of sweet strawberries and cedar. It's full-bodied with chewy tannins and a flavorful finish. Needs three or four years to soften. Be patient. Better after 2023.

Paolo Manzone Langhe Luvì 2017

Score: 92 Points

A fruity and layered red with strawberries, cherries, smoke and chocolate. Full-bodied with round, soft tannins and a fruity finish. Drink now.

Paolo Manzone Barbera d'Alba Superiore Fiorenza 2018

Score: 92 Points

Spicy and fruity with some cedar on the nose. Medium to full body, round and juicy tannins and a fruity finish. Drink now.

Paolo Manzone Dolcetto d'Alba Magna 2019

Score: 90 Points

A fruity, vivaci red with cherry and chocolate aromas and flavors. Medium-bodied, fresh and easy. Drink now.

Parte 2

Paolo Manzone Barolo Meriame 2017

Score: 93 Points

Aromas of wild berries, dried flowers and a tinge of oak spice. Full-bodied, round and silky with very fine, fruit-coated tannins and a clean finish with lots of fruit. If you like your Barolo young, this is for you. But better to wait until 2023.

Paolo Manzone Barolo Riserva 2015

Score: 93 Points

Enticing aromas of bright dried spice and walnut husk with undertones of almond milk and earth. Dried fruit at the base of it all. Full-bodied with very fine tannins that are still lightly firm, carrying the spicy dried fruit through a long finish. Hold until at least 2023.

Paolo Manzone Nebbiolo d'Alba 2018

Score: 91 Points

This has attractive maraschino and some earthy, fresh-truffle nuances with a gun-smoke edge. The palate has fresh, crisp and chalky tannins, carrying supple red cherries. Drink over the next four years.

Paolo Manzone Barolo del Comune di Serralunga d'Alba 2017

Score: 91 Points

Ripe red cherries and berries on the nose with hints of mushrooms and salt licorice. Medium-to full-bodied with a very fine, lightly firm tannin framework. Long, rather bitter finish for now. Better from 2023.
